

Fred H. Henritze

Brookdale Responsibilities

As Vice-Chairman, Mr. Henritze remains active in the formulation, implementation and oversight of Brookdale's investment and disposition strategies, monitoring of leasing activity related to all investments, and real estate market conditions and trends across the Sunbelt.

Professional Experience

Prior to founding Brookdale in 1994, Mr. Henritze spent 10 years with Houston-based real estate company Hines, where he was Vice President of Marketing/Leasing for the Hines Southeast Region. While at Hines, Mr. Henritze developed leasing and marketing plans for individual projects and portfolios, supervised marketing and leasing professionals, and negotiated major tenant leases.

Education

Mr. Henritze holds a BBA degree from The College of William and Mary.

Memberships and Civic Involvement

Mr. Henritze was a Trustee of The College of William and Mary. Additionally, he was a Board Member of The William and Mary Foundation where he served on the Foundation's Investment Committee, and is a current member of the Shepherd Center Foundation Board of Trustees.

404-364-8082

See Also: